FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Allegiance Health Management Announces Planned Divestiture of Four Louisiana Hospitals

Bossier City, La. — October 5, 2026 — Allegiance Health Management today announced plans to divest four of its Louisiana hospitals as part of the company's ongoing efforts to position each facility for long-term sustainability and continued service to the communities they serve.

The planned divestitures include:

- CLHG-Minden, LLC dba Minden Medical Center
- CLHG-Ruston, LLC dba Northern Louisiana Medical Center
- CLHG-Acadian, LLC dba Acadian Medical Center
- CLHG-Ville Platte, LLC dba Mercy Regional Medical Center

"We are committed to working closely with the communities we serve and with the potential new owners throughout this process to ensure a seamless transition," said Scott W. Prouty, CEO of Allegiance Health Management. "Our highest priority is protecting the delivery of quality healthcare services and ensuring that patients, employees, physicians and the communities these hospitals serve experience as little disruption as possible."

Allegiance Health Management recognizes the important role each of these hospitals plays in its respective community. Throughout the divestiture process, the company will work collaboratively with community leaders, hospital employees, medical staff and prospective new ownership to support continuity of care and preserve access to essential healthcare services.

The planned transactions remain subject to customary processes and approvals. Additional information regarding the potential new ownership and timing of the transitions will be shared as appropriate.

"We are grateful to the physicians, nurses, employees and community partners who have supported these hospitals and the patients they serve," Prouty said. "We will remain focused on making this transition thoughtfully and responsibly, with the needs of each community at the forefront."
